BACK TO THE BIBLE

"The Bible has been the Magna Charta of the poor and of the oppressed. Down to modern times no state has had a constitution in which the interests of the people are so largely taken into account as that drawn up for Israel."—Professor Huxley, agnostic scientist and philosopher.

A BOOK OF PRACTICAL WISDOM

By R. FULTON CUTTING, LL. D.
 (Financier, Philanthropist and Civic Leader, New York City.)

The positiveness of the Bible's philosophy makes a mighty appeal. It is on the positive side alone that man is open to inspiration. The negative finds no responsive chord to strike in his soul. To "overcome evil with good" is its method of conducting the battle of life and no other campaign can compete with it in the completeness and permanence with which this policy accomplishes its ends.

The Bible's advice is idealized common sense. The clergyman, the business man, the artisan, the laborer can all find in it a practical wisdom that, assimilated, will make them more successful in their respective fields of activity. It makes them all better producers, larger contributors to their own welfare and that of others. Obedience to its teaching means providence, temperance, industry—all the elements of character that takes men out of the "bread line" and puts them in the class of the self-respecting and self-dependent.

While the Bible everywhere expresses its profound and intense sympathy with the poor, it never glorifies poverty as such nor presents it as the ideal of life. No writers have ever condemned in more burning language the conduct of the unjust rich than those whose words are recorded in its pages, but it expresses its disapprobation also of the conduct of those who sought the unearned "loaves and fishes." A sublime justice runs through its pages. It knows no sorts or conditions of men, discriminating only between those who obey or disobey its truths, but its indignation is peculiarly poured out upon those who, having received much, and of whom therefore "there is much required," prove to be thankless and faithless stewards.

PERRYSBURG WINS AGAIN

Perrysburg won a hard fought ten inning game Saturday from the Wades of Toledo 4 to 3. The game was fast and exciting and was featured by the playing of both teams. Charles pitched a good game and showed old time form for five innings. Canode finished the game and his hit in the tenth won for the locals. Score.

The game Sunday between Perrysburg and The Ohio Dairy team was postponed on account of the rain.

Next Sunday the France Stone team will be here for a game. These teams have met before and the locals winning 4 to 1. The Stones are a strong team and have confidence of winning from the 'burg. This game will be worth seeing. So be on hand and root for your favorite.

C. E. Stinebaugh, State Treasurer.

E. C. Turner, Attorney General.

In Wood county the following seem to have been nominated;

Clerk—Fulton, R.; Putnam, D.

Recorder—Herriff, R.; Knauss, D.

Pros. Atty.—Solether R.; Bemis D.

Coroner—Bowers, D.

Commissioner—

Wollam, Isch, Hanna, Republicans.

Kunker Ayres, Baumgardner, D.

These figures are made before complete returns were sent in and are therefore unofficial.
